PAACC Now Accepting Application for 2010-11 Honorary Commanders Association

Submission Deadline: May 25, 2010

The Honorary Commanders Association, a community relations program run as a cooperative effort by the Pittsburgh Airport Area Chamber of Commerce, 911th Airlift Wing, Air Force Reserve, 316th Expeditionary Sustainment Command, Army Reserve, and the 171st Air Refueling Wing, Pennsylvania Air National Guard, is now accepting applications for the Class of 2010-11.

The year-long, community relations program is designed to give selected business and community leaders an opportunity to learn more about the activities of the military at sites located in Moon Township and the Pittsburgh Region. Association events may include briefings, tours of military facilities and aircraft, orientation flights, and trips to key military installations throughout our country. We invite you to apply for participation in the upcoming 2010-11 Honorary Commanders Program.

All applications should be received no later than May 25, 2010 and mailed to: Honorary Commanders Association, Pittsburgh Airport Area Chamber of Commerce, 850 Beaver Grade Road, Moon Twp., PA 15108. Please be sure to sign the application form so we may call you if we need additional information. Due to the limitations of the program, class size is restricted and, unfortunately, all applicants will not be accepted. We will, however, have opportunities for participation as an alternate from time to time. A participation fee is charged for this program.

We look forward to receiving your application for participation in this outstanding community leadership program. Please contact me at the Pittsburgh Airport Area Chamber (412) 264-6270 if you have questions or need additional information.

Sincerely,

President

2010-11 HONORARY COMMANDERS ASSOCIATION
